WELCOME TO THE 2014 GEORGIA FILM & TELEVISION SOURCEBOOK!

To: Entertainment Industry Professionals

The Georgia entertainment industry has never been busier! Georgia is now among the top five states in the nation for film and TV production, with an economic impact of more than $3.3 billion in fiscal year 2013.

The Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office has established a national reputation among the industry with our competitive incentives, skilled crew base, growing infrastructure, diverse locations and accessibility through the world's busiest airport.

The entertainment industry plays a significant role in Georgia's economy, employing more than 25,000 people. Since the inception of the 2008 Georgia Entertainment Industry Investment Act, 11 new state-of-the-art film production facilities have expanded or located here. We have also seen a significant increase in crew, equipment suppliers and production support services locating to Georgia in the past year.

Local economic impact from productions can be significant, including hiring of local residents, hotel stays and purchases of goods and services.

This annual Sourcebook is just one of the many offerings available to entertainment productions through the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office. The burgeoning content on these pages is a testament to the success of the industry in Georgia.

I look forward to continuing my commitment to work closely with the entertainment industry to create jobs and investments in Georgia.

Sincerely,

Nathan Deal
Governor
State of Georgia

WOW, WHAT A TIME FOR THE GEORGIA FILM AND TELEVISION INDUSTRY!

Since 2007, Georgia's entertainment industry has experienced unprecedented growth - not only with the amount of film and television productions taking place here - but also in the size of this year's Georgia Film & Television Sourcebook.

Georgia's infrastructure is growing at a record pace - we have new state-of-the-art facilities and an even deeper pool of supply chain companies. Production companies can now find scores of local camera companies, casting agents, caterers, equipment rental houses, props and wardrobe suppliers, post production companies and music scoring facilities to help save time and money on their productions.

Georgia can provide almost any backdrop for your project - within our diverse topography you will find mountains, the coast, big cities, small town squares and more. Producers have enjoyed Georgia's amenities including the world's busiest passenger airport, first-class hotels, mild climate year-round, five-star restaurants and our cultural diversity.

Our most important asset and the heartbeat of Georgia's entertainment industry is our skilled workforce. Thanks to our competitive incentives we now have even more experienced film industry workers, additional in-state training programs and an increase in ancillary support services.

When we launched our statewide Camera Ready Program in 2010- it was an opportunity to partner with Georgia counties to provide even more filmic resources to productions. Our Camera Ready communities have seen an increase in production activity and are better equipped to support you and your production needs.

And finally, there's us! The Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office is ready, willing to assist with scouting locations, guiding you through our incentives, finding crew and so much more. Our team will be with you every step of the way from now through wrap. Just ask any of the productions that have helped make Georgia one of the top five production destinations in the country!

We look forward to your call . . .

Sincerely,

Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Team

GEORGIA FILM, MUSIC & DIGITAL ENTERTAINMENT OFFICE

75 Fifth Street, N.W. | Suite 1200 | Atlanta, Georgia | 30308
Contact us at Georgia.org/FMDE or call us at 404.962.4052.

KNOWLEDGEABLE STAFF

Our team of professionals has more than 85 years of film production experience between them. They have assisted more than 850 television and feature film productions, and thousands of commercials, industrials, music videos and corporate projects.

PHOTOGRAPHIC LIBRARY

The Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office offers a comprehensive database of more than 100,000 color images of locations throughout the state, digitized for immediate transmission. If this library does not meet your location needs, specific locales will be photographed based on your project's requirements.

LOCATION SCOUTING

For "green-lit" feature films and television projects, a staff member will develop an itinerary and accompany you and your production team on a location scout of possible sites for your project.

PRE-PRODUCTION

Once you have decided to locate your next project in Georgia, the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office will assist you with all of your pre-production needs including identifying options for office and stage facilities, accommodations and ongoing location assistance. Additionally, the office will coordinate meetings and appointments with individuals and professional or labor organizations. No production permits or licenses are required through our office, but for special requests or clearances, we will coordinate and assist as necessary with municipalities and state agencies. The Georgia Film & Television Sourcebook is an invaluable guide to the state's production resources.

MUSIC

Georgia's music industry has long excelled with globally recognized talent, established production facilities and thriving venues and festivals. The office assists production clients, companies and entrepreneurs with identifying music-related resources and information statewide.

TAX INCENTIVES THAT WORK!

Georgia is a production-friendly state. You'll find picturesque small towns with a welcoming Southern feel and big cities with all the resources and amenities you'll need. You can shoot, edit and even score your production with highly trained professional crews in state-of-the-art facilities, and the state's diverse geography offers countless location choices. Georgia also offers production companies strong financial tools that make working in our state the smart choice.

GEORGIA OFFERS FINANCIAL TOOLS TO SAVE

The Georgia Entertainment Industry Investment Act grants an income tax credit of 30 percent to qualified productions. The Georgia Entertainment Industry Investment Act offers an across the board flat tax credit of 20 percent, based on a minimum investment of $500,000 per year on qualified productions which include feature films, television movies or series, commercials, music videos, interactive entertainment and animated projects. Feature films, television projects, music videos and interactive entertainment projects are also eligible to receive an additional 10 percent tax credit for including an embedded Georgia Entertainment Promotion Logo in the end credits in the finished product and include a link to www.tourgeorgiafilm.com on the project's promotional website. For features and indies, this placement is typically after contractual agreements and before the start of production crew in the scroll. Television projects placement is in the body of the program; in the opening title sequence; as a bumper into and out of a commercial break or the end credits.

Combine these powerful financial tools with the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office's knowledgeable staff, diverse locations, accessibility via Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport and a pro-business climate, and you have the perfect backdrop for any production.

30 PERCENT TAX CREDIT

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE GEORGIA ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY INVESTMENT ACT

- 20 percent base transferable tax credit
- 10 percent Georgia Entertainment Promotion (GEP) uplift can be earned by including an embedded Georgia logo on approved projects and a link to <http://www.tourgeorgiafilm.com> on the promotional website
- $500,000 minimum spend to qualify
- No limits or caps on Georgia spend, no sunset clause
- Both resident and non-resident workers' payrolls and FICA, SUI, FUI qualify
- No salary cap on individuals paid by 1099, personal service contract or loan out. Payments made to a loan out company will require six percent Georgia income tax withheld
- Production expenditures must be made in Georgia to qualify
- Travel and insurance qualify if purchased through a Georgia agency or company
- Original music scoring eligible for projects produced in Georgia qualify
- Post production of Georgia-filmed movies and television projects qualify
- Development costs, promotion, marketing, license fees and story right fees do not qualify

THE CERTIFICATION PROCESS FOR THE 20 PERCENT TAX CREDIT

To be eligible for the 20 percent transferable tax credit, the Georgia Department of Economic Development must certify the production. For live action film, television, commercial and music video projects specifically, certification will be through the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office. Applications should be submitted with a current shooting script, music video lyrics sheet and story synopsis (if applicable for each project). Certification may be applied for within 90 days of the start of principal photography. In most instances, projects will be reviewed and certified quickly, although some applications may require additional information.

The Georgia Entertainment Industry Investment Act also grants an income tax credit of up to 20 percent for qualified Interactive Entertainment Projects including video game development and animated film and television projects. An additional 10 percent uplift is also available for projects which opt to include a 15 second Georgia logo in units sold and embedded in online promotions. There is a $25 million cap for interactive entertainment production companies on a first come, first served basis based on the date the credits are claimed.

For additional information regarding interactive entertainment projects, please contact:

THE CERTIFICATION PROCESS FOR THE 10 PERCENT GEORGIA ENTERTAINMENT PROMOTION (GEP) LOGO UPLIFT

A separate application must also be completed to be considered for the Georgia Entertainment Promotion (GEP) uplift, which is an additional 10 percent uplift earned for approved projects that include an embedded Georgia logo within the end credits before the below-the-line crew credit roll in the finished product and include a link to www.tourgeorgiafilm.com on the promotional website. For features and indies, this placement is typically after contractual agreements and before the start of production crew in the scroll. Television projects placement is in the body of the program; in the opening title sequence; as a bumper into and out of a commercial break or the end credits. This GEP uplift is available for feature films, television series, pilots, television movies, music videos.

Feature films, television pilots, television series and MOW must:

- a) complete the project certification application
- b) attach a final shooting script
- c) complete the "Georgia Entertainment Promotion" application

For music videos:

- a) a finished project must be submitted to the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office for consideration
- b) complete the "Georgia Entertainment Promotion" application

*Commercials are not eligible for the 10 percent GEP uplift.

The GEP tax credit uplift will be allowed for projects which the Georgia Department of Economic Development (GDECd) has determined will create valuable promotions that will enhance the State's brand. GDECd will review applications and will notify the applicant of the decision. If the GEP application is approved, the Georgia Department of Economic Development will provide all necessary copies of the conformed logo for inclusion in the project at no cost to the applicant.

In lieu of the inclusion of the GEP uplift logo, the production company may offer alternative marketing promotion opportunities of equal or greater value as determined by the Georgia Department of Economic Development

In the case of a disapproval of a certification application, an appeal may be made to the Manager of Community and Government Relations (Georgia Department of Economic Development, 75 Fifth Street, NW, Suite 1200, Atlanta, Georgia 30308) within thirty (30) days from the issuance of the denial letter by GDECd. Failure to request an appeal within thirty (30) days will finalize the denial decision and/or the percentage of the tax credit.

CALCULATE YOUR SAVINGS AND FILE

Once the production is certified, the production company will receive a certification letter from the Georgia Department of Economic Development to be attached to its Georgia income tax return. The letter will indicate whether the tax credit will be awarded at the 20 percent or 30 percent level, based on approval of the Georgia Entertainment Promotion. Please attach the letter, a detailed breakdown of expenditures to prove the base investment of $500,000 has been met, a list of employees with Social Security numbers and Georgia wages and completed Georgia Department of Revenue's (DOR) FORM IT-FC to the Georgia tax return to claim the film tax credit. The credit can be claimed once the investment requirement has been met and the Georgia income tax return is filed.

GEORGIA AT A GLANCE

TOPOGRAPHY

The largest state east of the Mississippi River, Georgia's 58,910 square miles offers an interesting and diverse topography. Georgia stretches from the Appalachian Mountains to the Atlantic Coast, with three distinct sections: the mountains of northern Georgia, the broadly undulating terrain of the Piedmont Plateau, and the gently rolling land of the coastal plain. North Georgia, with its mountains that are part of the Appalachian chain, is a region rich in natural resources. Dozens of small streams tumble down the mountain sides and carve spectacular gorges as they join to form rivers and flow to the sea.

South of the mountains, the gently sloping Piedmont Plateau sweeps across the state with deep, narrow valleys and numerous rivers and streams. This area, which includes the capital city of Atlanta, is home to more than half of the state's population. Still further south, the coastal plain comprises over half of the state and borders on the Atlantic Ocean. The area features salt water marshes, barrier islands, and primitive island beaches. The area also includes the northern section of the Okefenokee National Wildlife Refuge, which is the largest national refuge in the Eastern United States.

CAPITOL

Atlanta is a progressive city with a rich history that continues to shape the future. Georgia's capital is the business, financial, and transportation hub of the Southeast. Atlanta's reputation as an international city was cinched when it was named home of the 1996 Centennial Olympic Games. Nearly 5.6 million people call metro Atlanta home.

POPULATION

A current population of 9,687,653 million ranks Georgia as the ninth most populous state in the nation. Georgia's population growth since the 1970's attests to the opportunity and attractive natural and economic environment that the state offers.

TRANSPORTATION

Air: Few states can match Georgia's air transportation services. There are 104 public and 339 private airports in Georgia. Since 1998, Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport has been the busiest passenger airport in the world handling more than 90 million passengers annually and offering more scheduled flights than any other airport in the world. Hartsfield-Jackson serves 150 U.S. destinations and more than 80 international destinations in 52 countries. Hartsfield-Jackson also offers non-stop service from Atlanta to Los Angeles 26 times daily. In addition, Atlanta is within a two-hour flight of 80 percent of the United States population.

Rail: Georgia is blanketed by a railroad grid of 5,000 miles of track. The state is served by two major rail systems, CSX Transportation and Norfolk Southern Cooperation.

Mass Transit: The Metropolitan Atlanta Rapid Transit System (MARTA) boasts one of the most modern mass transit systems in the Western Hemisphere. The state-of-the-art 38-station system has 47.6 miles of rail line extending in four directions from the central city. Passengers can ride from the heart of the city to the airport terminal lobby in 20 minutes without taking a single step out-of-doors.

Highway: Georgia's 1,244 miles of interstate highways, along with 18,000 additional miles of state and federal highways, provide valuable transport avenues to all areas of the state.

Trucks: Georgia's trucking laws state that the maximum truck axle weight on interstates, state routes, city streets and country roads is not to exceed 20,340 lbs. Maximum tandem axle weight on the interstates is 40,680 lbs. (if gross weight is less than 73,280 lbs. and vehicle length is less than 55 ft., otherwise 34,000 lbs.). On country roads, maximum weight is 56,000 lbs. (unless making a pick-up or delivery on that roadway). Maximum trailer length on interstate roads is unlimited (standard trailers of 48 ft. - 53 ft. are allowed with four inches off each side). Maximum trailer length on state routes, city streets and country roads is 60 ft. per unit, or 65 ft. load (unlimited length on designated signed routes with same trailer restrictions). Maximum trailer width on interstates, state routes, city streets and country roads is 102" on 12 ft. lanes, 96" on all other lanes. Maximum trailer height on interstates, state routes, city streets and country roads is 13'-6".

A motor fuel tax is applied to any truck with gross weight of 26,001 lbs. or more. There are no hour restrictions for trucks or buses.

Ports: In addition to Georgia's two deep water ports at Savannah and Brunswick, the state has more than 300 miles of inland waterways.

GEORGIA'S MAJOR HIGHWAYS

CLIMATE

Climate has always favored the Southeast. Georgia's highest summer temperatures average 88 degrees with the lowest winter averages above freezing. Compared to many other parts of the country, Georgia's temperatures are not significantly warmer during the summer but are much milder during the winter months.

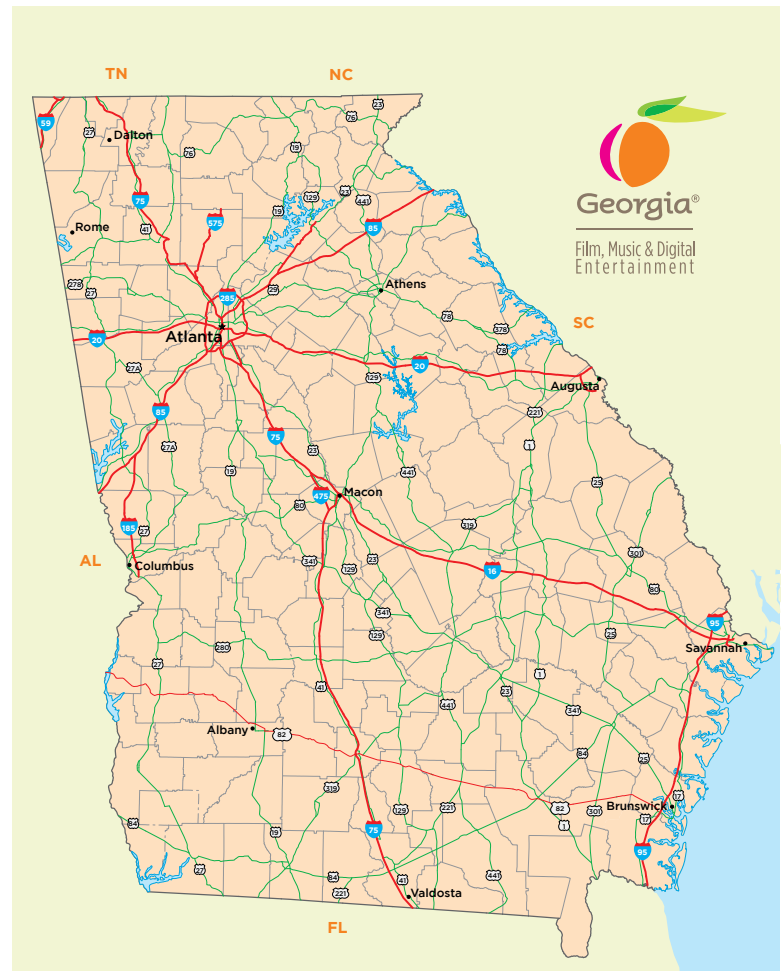

Due to latitude and proximity to the warm waters of the Gulf of Mexico and Atlantic Ocean, most of Georgia has warm, humid summers and short, mild winters. However, in the northern part of the state, altitude becomes the most predominant influence, with resulting cool summers and cooler, but not severe, winters. All four seasons are apparent, but spring is short with rather frequent periods of storminess of varying intensity. In autumn, long periods of mild, sunny weather are the rule for all Georgia.

Statewide, summer temperatures average below 90 degrees and the lowest winter temperatures stay well above freezing.

Annual rainfall in Georgia ranges from more than 75 inches in the extreme northeast corner to 40 inches in the east central area. The greatest rainfall occurs at different times of the year throughout various regions of the state, with January or February the wettest month in the northern third of Georgia.

Snowfall is light in Georgia and of no significance in most of the state. Only in the extreme northern mountains is the average snowfall as much as five inches.

FILMMAKING IN GEORGIA

IMPORTANT CONTACTS FOR PERMITTING

Most location permitting in Georgia is done municipality by municipality, not at the state level. Please contact the city or ruling government entity to inquire about a specific location, local permitting and additional requirements for that area. The designated Camera Ready liaison in each county should be able to direct you to the appropriate permitting entities, if any, in the specific community.

HOW DO I FIND CASTING AGENTS OR BECOME AN EXTRA IN MOVIES?

Casting agents are available in this Sourcebook.

The Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office also posts casting calls and crew positions on the state's Help Wanted Hotline, Facebook and Twitter. To access these job opportunities, you can contact us through the following:

Phone: 404.962.4055

Website: <http://www.georgia.org/INDUSTRIES/ENTERTAINMENT/georgia-film-tv-production/help-wanted-hotline/>

HOW DO I LIST MY PROPERTIES IN THE GEORGIA FILM MUSIC & DIGITAL ENTERTAINMENT OFFICE'S LOCATION DATABASE?

Our extensive location library contains homes and businesses from throughout the state that we match to location requests we receive from producers of feature films, television movies, commercials, music videos, corporate media and still photography shoots.

If you would like your Georgia home, business or property considered as a possible filming location, please send your digital photos to us by using our location submission form at <http://www.georgia.org/industries/entertainment/georgia-film-tv-production/list-your-property-as-a-film-location/>

We will review your photos and, if approved, your property will be added to our photo location database.

WHERE CAN I FIND A LIST OF MOVIES THAT HAVE BEEN SHOT IN GEORGIA?

You can find a list of movies in this Sourcebook and online at Georgia.org/FMDE.

The Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office is proud to offer the Camera Ready Program, connecting film and television producers with skilled county liaisons across the state to provide local expertise and support.

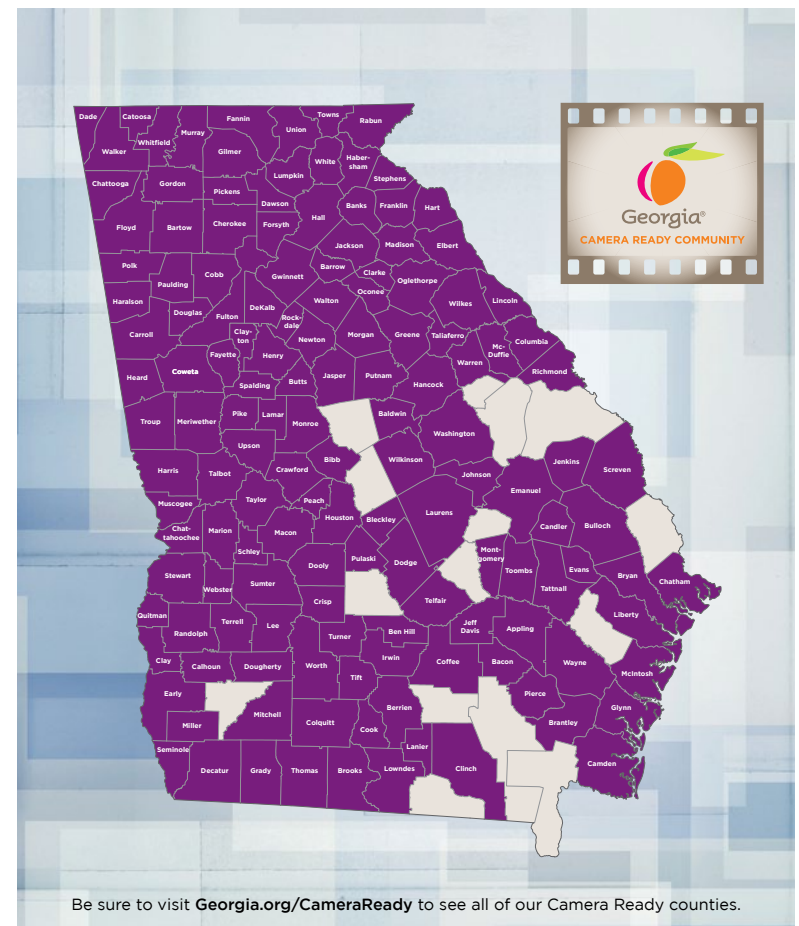

If you have an upcoming shoot, you now have a helpful liaison in each Camera Ready community who is ready to provide easier, faster and better access to county information, production resources, filming contacts and shooting locations.

Visit Georgia.org/CameraReady for a list of current Camera Ready counties and their respective Camera Ready liaisons.

You can think of Camera Ready as an extension of the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office into the local community where you are shooting. Some production needs and questions are best addressed on the local level, which is why this program was formed. However, the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office will remain involved with your project during your time in Georgia.

DID YOU KNOW?

Movie and television productions have come to Georgia to film our towns and attractions for many decades. Over that time, we've racked up quite a bit of Georgia film trivia. Check out these did-you-know facts and share them with your fellow film buffs.

- Georgia-lensed movies “X-Men: First Class,” “Zombieland,” “The Blind Side,” “Hall Pass,” “Fast 5,” “Identity Thief,” “Prisoners,” and “The Hunger Games: Catching Fire” all opened at No. 1 at the box office.
- Four of Tyler Perry’s made-in-Georgia films have opened at No. 1 at the box office: “Madea’s Family Reunion,” “Why Did I Get Married?,” “I Can Do Bad All By Myself,” and “Madea Goes to Jail.”
- “The Hunger Games: Catching Fire” often used two multiple Georgia venues as one film location, such as The Pullman Yard and The Goat Farm for District 12; service areas of the Georgia World Congress Center and the Atlanta Motor Speedway for the Quarter Quell chariot parade; and both the state-owned Murphy Avenue warehouses and the interior of the old Norfolk Southern Railroad offices downtown for the Justice Building.
- Cotton fields in Marshallville, Georgia, were shot for the agricultural areas of District 11 in “The Hunger Games: Catching Fire.”
- “Flight” was nominated for two Academy Awards in 2013, including Best Actor (Denzel Washington) and Best Original Screenplay. “The Blind Side” was nominated for two Academy Awards in 2009, including Best Picture and Best Actress in a Leading Role (Sandra Bullock, winner).
- Both “Joyful Noise” and “Crazy Sexy Cool: The TLC Story” filmed pivotal performance scenes at the Atlanta Civic Center.
- “Prisoners” shot largely in Conyers, Lithonia and Stone Mountain, though they moved into East Point for a couple of home interiors and the Fulton Medical Center.
- Wild Adventures amusement park in Valdosta was the location of the climactic zombie fight in “Zombieland.”
- The 2005 HBO feature “Warm Springs” garnered 16 Emmy nominations with eight Georgians represented in six categories. It ended up winning five Emmys, including three presented to Georgians. Filming locations included Warm Springs, Gainesville, Atlanta, Madison and Summerville.
- Crawfordville has been host to more than 13 feature films and television movies, including “Get Low,” “Sweet Home Alabama,” “The Neon Bible,” “Stars and Bars” and “The Coward of the County.”
- Savannah has been host to dozens of feature film and television projects, including “Forrest Gump,” “Glory,” “The Last Song,” “The Conspirator,” “The Legend of Baggar Vance,” “The Gift,” “Forces of Nature” and “The General’s Daughter.”
- “Deliverance” was filmed primarily in Rabun County and celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2012. The film is credited for giving birth to the whitewater rafting industry in North Georgia.
- Columbus hosted a major car stunt on the Chattahoochee River bridge in “Need For Speed,” as well as “The Fighting Temptations” which filmed at the River Center for the Performing Arts.
- Covington has been home to dozens of feature and television projects, including the hit TV series “The Vampire Diaries” and “In the Heat of the Night.”
- Rome hosted “Sweet Home Alabama” as well as “The Mosquito Coast,” “Remember the Titans” and “Class of ‘61.”
- The small town of Juliette was revitalized when “Fried Green Tomatoes” was largely shot in that community. The Whistle Stop Café still functions as a tourist attraction.
- “Sweet Home Alabama” used the rolling hills of the Georgia International Horse Park’s former Olympic Equestrian Eventing area (Bald Rock Meadows) for scenes featuring Civil War re-enactors. The original jumps from the 1996 Olympic Games dot the serene natural landscape, adjacent to the multi-area facility in Conyers. It was also the site of the first ever Olympic mountain biking course—over eight miles long—still open for public riding daily.

- Downtown Conyers was transformed into New Orleans’ French Quarter for several months as “Vampire Diaries” spinoff “The Originals” filmed there. Vacant storefronts were dressed as nightclubs, voodoo shops, and more, no doubt puzzling many tourists.
- In the movie “Flight,” Denzel Washington’s character meets with his lawyer, played by Don Cheadle, over breakfast at the St. Regis hotel’s daily executive buffet.
- Jennifer Aniston became a big fan of Clarksville, Georgia, after shooting “Wanderlust” on location in the North Georgia mountains. Stated Aniston, “Going to Clarksville gave me a huge change—it was an eye opener. It was the greatest experience because I felt like I gained my anonymity back. When I got there I felt my body decompress and relax. I was like, ‘God, I’m so paranoid and pent up.’ The toxic clutter was just alleviated. It was a nice feeling, and I took it home with me.”
- Tim Burton’s remake of “Charlie and the Chocolate Factory” used a home in Buford to serve as the home of Violet Beauregard, the gum chewer.
- The main vampire lair for the hit television series “The Vampire Diaries” was Glenridge Hall in Sandy Springs. Because they used the location so often, they eventually recreated the interior of the home on their sound stages in Decatur.
- The Okefenokee Swamp, one of the oldest and best preserved freshwater systems in America, is the largest swamp in North America. In 1941, French New Wave director Jean Renoir shot his first American film, “Swamp Water,” in the Okefenokee Swamp in Georgia.
- After the 2000 film “The Legend of Baggar Vance” was released, so many patrons visited the Jeckyll Island Club to have a drink at the “lobby bar,” which had been built and then removed by the film company, that the Club recreated it for patrons to enjoy.
- Three generations of the Zanuck family produced films in Georgia: Darryl Zanuck produced Jean Renoir’s “Swamp Water,” his son Richard produced “Driving Miss Daisy” and his grandson Dean produced “Get Low.”
- Georgia Tech doubled as the Google headquarters in the Vince Vaughn/Owen Wilson comedy “The Internship,” their first film together since the blockbuster hit “The Wedding Crashers.”

PRODUCTIONS FILMED 1972-2013

JUST A FEW OF THE SETTINGS YOU CAN FIND IN GEORGIA:

The North Georgia Mountain region is home to the Appalachian Trail, breathtaking views, picturesque wineries, expansive resorts, outdoor recreation, and small mountain towns. 2012 marked the 40 year anniversary of the film "Deliverance," which shot primarily in Rabun County.

Metro Atlanta offers towering skyscrapers, quaint small towns, green space and a variety of other metropolitan backdrops.

64 State Parks and Historic Sites are scattered across Georgia's varying landscape. To learn more, visit gastateparks.org.

The homeland of the Cherokee Indians has been preserved in the northwest corner of the state, featuring the Etowah Indian Mounds and the former capitol of the Cherokee Nation, New Echota. Also in the northwest corner of the state, Berry College's Oak Hill was featured in "Sweet Home Alabama." The Georgia historic landmark was the original home of Martha Berry, the founder of the college.

Georgia's Coast stretches approximately 100 miles between the Savannah and St. Marys Rivers. In this unique region you will find barrier islands, isolated beaches, tranquil marshes, lighthouses, intercostal waterways and cobblestone streets. After the "The Legend of Bagger Vance" was released, visitors traveled to the Jekyll Island Club Hotel to have a drink at the 'lobby bar.' Unfortunately, the bar was built and removed by the film's production company. The Jekyll Island Club Hotel ended up rebuilding the exact same bar for patrons to enjoy.

Savannah, "Georgia's First City," offers magnificent live oak trees draped in Spanish moss, antebellum mansions overlooking picturesque squares, one of the largest National Historic Landmark Districts, and a beautiful riverfront. Architectural structures abound across the state including modern buildings, antebellum homes, white-pillared plantations, Greek revival style, historic courthouses, small town squares, ancient Indian mounds and more. Train depots, corn fields, mills, historic town squares, race tracks, wildlife preserves, lakes, rivers, waterfalls, woodlands, more than 300 golf courses, Civil War battlefields and much more can be found across the state.

Since the inception of the Georgia Film, Music & Digital Entertainment Office in 1972, more than 850 major motion pictures have been produced in Georgia. Following is a listing of projects in the state.

Camera Ready cities ...

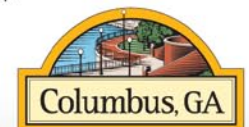

CONVENTION & VISITORS BUREAU
What progress has preserved.

...we are ready to play any role.

You've seen our work before. We've played a variety of roles in several familiar movies. As a seasoned performer, we take direction well and have the versatility to assume a broad range of roles, in front of or behind the lens.

As a Georgia Camera Ready Community, we can provide local, one-on-one assistance in every aspect of production, from location scouting and film permits to traffic control, catering and lodging. The Camera Ready designation means we're ready to provide easier, faster and better access to production resources and location information. For more information on the many roles of Columbus, call today. We're ready for our closeup.

A wonderland of compelling locations, Coastal Georgia serves up verdant marshlands, wilderness islands, the Atlantic Ocean, the Intracoastal Waterway, three rivers, the Great Okefenokee Swamp, quaint waterfront villages, and majestic maritime forests—captivating vistas at every turn. Add in the mystique of historic cemeteries, a world-class Navy Submarine base, the charm of antebellum mansions, the friendliest people you'll ever meet, plus film-friendly city leadership, and you'll discover the makings of a great film. We call it "Cinemagical"!

LOCATIONS THAT MAKE HISTORY.

AND VICE VERSA.

Few shooting locations match the storybook combination of history, beauty and hospitality of the Jekyll Island Club Hotel.

A National Historic Landmark District setting along the Intracoastal Waterway, authentic Victorian architecture, lush grounds, proximity to barrier island beaches and woodlands, transportation access and 157 rooms and suites. And a uniquely experienced and supportive management and staff.

Missing some pieces of your puzzle?

As one of the first Camera Ready Communities in Georgia, Covington/Newton County is set to help you bring all the pieces together for your production!

With close cooperation between city and county governments, you will save time and money by working with a community that understands your production needs and appreciates your business. Having hosted over 60 films and television series, our area is experienced and well equipped to handle every aspect of your project... from expedited permitting to quick turnaround on special requests. Easy access to a wide range of locations makes Covington/Newton County the right choice for your next production.

All of the pieces in one place...

Providing an enormous selection of location possibilities, Covington/Newton County offers a beautiful historic town square, numerous warehouses and commercial buildings, historic homes, churches and cemeteries. Expansive lakes, rivers and shoals, biking and walking trails, wooded forest areas, recreational facilities and sports complexes round out your choices. Known as Hollywood of the South[™], Covington has been a popular television and film location since 1954.

Beginning with A Man Called Peter and with movies ranging from Remember the Titans to American Reunion, Covington is ready for (lights, camera,) Action! Easily transformed into a Civil War village, a 1950's town or a modern day city, the county's scenic locations, moderate temperatures, airport accessibility and community support have become a real draw for filmmakers.

Currently known as Mystic Falls, VA, for The Vampire Diaries, Covington/Newton County has also been home to The Dukes of Hazzard, In the Heat of the Night and over 60 film productions. The recent remake of Footloose, Jayne Mansfield's Car and Flight all found the allure of Covington irresistible. Whatever your needs may be, we stand ready to make your next project or production a success!

We know that it is all about the camera when it comes to a successful film project. But before you roll film you have to have the right shooting and production locations and the right community support. Nobody knows that better than we do in Conyers and Rockdale County.

When it comes to your film production needs we have what it takes. With hundreds of thousands of square feet of available sound stage, office and production space we can accommodate productions of any size.

We have a cooperative relationship between city and county government, our public school system and local business. You can save valuable time and money by working with a community that understands your critical production needs and truly appreciates your business.

Our success with major feature films and award-winning television productions is proof of our ongoing commitment to the film industry. We can accommodate changing filming requirements and production needs 24x7.

We invite you to take advantage of our expedited permitting, quality workforce, local set construction and equipment rental resources to make your next blockbuster movie or franchise television production an award-winning success.

Located 20 minutes east of Atlanta and just 25 miles from the Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport, the City of Conyers & Rockdale County is the easiest place in Georgia to film your project.

We offer a wide variety of shooting locations in a geographically compact footprint to accommodate tight shooting schedules.

- ❖ Our turn-of-the-century main street has successfully been used as a middle America town and the heart of the New Orleans French Quarter.
- ❖ If your location needs include an 1890's train depot or historic southern homes we can deliver.
- ❖ We have industrial buildings suitable for sound stages and commercial buildings for location shots.
- ❖ Traditional and modern school buildings can accommodate many location requirements.
- ❖ A variety of neighborhoods and subdivisions provide a range of residential looks for your needs.
- ❖ Historic churches and cemeteries can add that special ambience to your next film project.
- ❖ Multiple state, county and city parks provide backdrops for your outdoor location requirements.
- ❖ The Georgia International Horse Park with state-of-the-art barns and 1,400 acres of forests, streams, rivers, shoals, swamps, and bike trails is available.
- ❖ and much more...

SURPRISE!

IT Services

at CTG?

I thought they just

did TV!

Zeroes and ones, it's the world we live in today. The driving force behind professional video and audio applications is networked data. New installations have more video running over Cat6 cable than coax cable. Along with traditional editors, video servers, and shared storage, now we have cameras, switchers, and monitors all transferring billions of bits and bytes around your network. Ready or not, your network is becoming more critical to your everyday business than you might have ever expected and you need an experienced partner to help manage your growing IT needs.

With a full-time staff of IT specialists, CTG has the personnel to solve any problem or build any system.

We have the people; we have the talent; let us show you what we can do.
